- 2) Turn right and walk to a bridge over the River Til - Continue on to a fork in the track – Bear LEFT and walk through Shelton Spinney – Emerge into an open field and continue on the track until a clear track on the RIGHT – Walk on the track to a T junction turn RIGHT – Follow this track ignoring a path on the left – Continue on the path until it meets a road opposite Shelton Church and the village of Shelton. (2 Miles)
- 3) Turn RIGHT and look for a waymarked footpath on the LEFT which goes through the farm of Shelton Hall – Continue on the path to a bridge back over the river – Walk with some woods to the left and cross a ditch – Continue across the next field keeping a hedge on the left – Into the next field and head straight across in a South East direction - Go through a hedge and continue across the next field in the same direction heading for a disused windmill – At the hedge turn RIGHT and then LEFT – Walk on the path which is enclosed both sides until to a track which goes through Dean House Farm – Where the track bears left turn RIGHT on to a broad grass path – Follow the path back to the pub and the start.
